Marie Alder

European Central Bank
Graduate Programme Participant
Frankfurt am Main, Germany

Born: May 17, 1997, France
Email: marie.alder@ecb.europa.eu
Website: https://mariealder.github.io/

Current Position

Graduate Programme Participant, European Central Bank, Frankfurt September 2026 - present

– Monetary Analysis Division, Directorate General Monetary Policy

Education

PhD in Economics, European University Institute, Florence 2022 - present

– Supervisors: Prof. A. Monge-Naranjo and Prof. G. Corsetti

MRes in Economics, European University Institute, Florence 2022 - 2023

– Thesis title: "Tackling debt and climate challenges: the case of debt-for-climate-and-nature swaps"

MRes in Economics, Polytechnic Institute of Paris, France 2020 - 2021

– Supervisor: Prof. E. Mengus
– Thesis title: "Strategic Foreign Lending: the case of China"

MSc in Economics and Statistical Engineering, ENSAE Paris, France 2017 - 2021

Working Papers

Corporate Debt Structure and Heterogeneous Monetary Policy Transmission

– With N. Coimbra and U. Szczerbowicz
– Banque de France Working Paper 933, CEPR Discussion Paper 18787

From Free to Fee: How Emission Permit Allocation Affects Firms

– With E. Franzmeyer and B. Hattemer

Work in Progress

Monetary Policy, Firm States, and Investment Dynamics in the Euro Area

– With Y. Filippone, S. Parraga Rodriguez and R. Setzer

From Carbon Pricing to Green Innovation: The Firm-Level Transmission of Carbon Policy Shocks

– With L. Arden and A. Kutten

Teaching

Instructor, SSM Climate and Nature Risks Learning Path, European Central Bank 2024–2025

– Video lecture on "The greener, the stabler? An overview of the link between green bonds and financial stability"
– Live class on the "Fit-for-55" package and the EU ETS reform

Work Experience

Economist PhD trainee, Deutsche Bundesbank, Frankfurt November 2025 - present

– Supervisors: A. Kutten and L. Arden
– Research project on the links between carbon price shocks and directed innovation

Economist PhD trainee, European Central Bank, Frankfurt May 2025 - October 2025

– Supervisors: S. Parraga Rodriguez and R. Setzer
– Research project on the drivers of business dynamism in the euro area

Economist trainee, European Central Bank, Frankfurt 2021 - 2022

– Supervisor: S. Zimic
– Contribution to the ECB and Eurosystem macroeconomic projections
– Development and use of semi-structural models

Economist intern, Banque de France, Paris May 2021 - August 2021

– Supervisors: N. Coimbra and U. Szczerbowicz
– Research project: "Corporate Debt Structure and Heterogeneous Monetary Policy Transmission"

Economist statistician intern, OECD, Paris March 2020 - September 2020

– Contribution to a statistical project on the estimation of house price levels
– Development of an interactive visualisation tool using R

Data scientist intern, Moneta Asset Management, Paris September 2019 - February 2020

– Semantic analysis (NLP) of earning calls reports and press releases reports

Economic and financial advisor intern, French Embassy, Madrid June 2019 - August 2020

– Study of territorial inequalities in Spain and their link with depopulation and Spanish political dynamics

Research assistant, ENS Ulm, Paris 2018 - 2019

– Supervisors: Prof. D. Cohen, M. Viennot
– Research project: "When do countries default?"

Conferences and Seminars

EABCN Conference: New Challenges in Monetary Economics (Mannheim, poster), JIE Summer School (Oxford, poster), Workshop on New insights from financial statements (Madrid), 3rd XAmsterdam Macroeconomic Workshop 2024

Onzième Conférence Évaluation des Politiques Publiques (Paris) 2025

JIE Summer School (Milan, poster) 2026

Skills

Languages: French, English, Spanish

Programming: Python, R, Matlab, Dynare, Stata